

---

Michael S. Wishart

Investment Banking
San Francisco

---

Mike is an advisory director in the Technology, Media & Telecommunications Investment Banking Group and chairman of the Global Technology Group. He began his career at Smith Barney in 1978 and co-founded Smith Barney's West Coast Technology Finance Practice in 1983. Mike joined Lehman Brothers in 1991 and served as co-head of the Global Technology Group. He joined Goldman Sachs in 1999.

Mike served as a member of the Board of Directors of Brooktree Corporation, a leading supplier of graphics, imaging and communication integrated circuits prior to its sale to Rockwell. He currently is a trustee of Sacred Heart Prep. He also sits on the Board of Directors of Plugged-In, a nonprofit organization dedicated to bridging the gap between Silicon Valley and the local community by providing computer training, computer and Internet access.

Mike earned an MBA from Stanford University in 1982 and a BS from St. Lawrence University in 1978.

